This workshop will be an introduction to the limitless possibilities of "Hand Lettering', a form of drawing to create decorative letters, experiment and have fun.

Learn how to create styles of lettering to convey the message of your words. Don't worry about perfection. The beauty is in the imperfection of hand lettering.

This informal and playful style of writing can be used for the latest trends of chalkboards and journaling, as well as greeting cards, quotes and invitations.

- Fine tip black pens (I use Uni Pin Fineliner Drawing Pens with different nib sizes)
- Pencil
- Coloured pencils or coloured felt tips (optional)
